SUNDAY

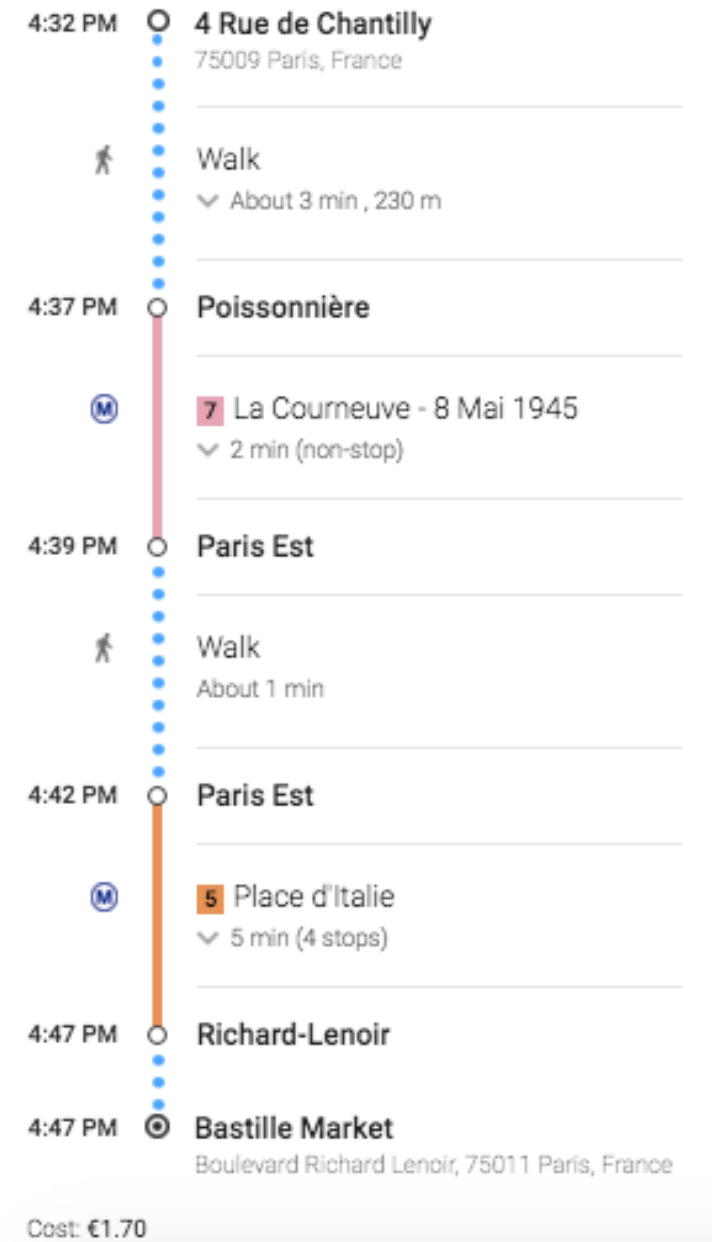

Bastille Market (Sun 7am-3pm)

15-20 minutes (door-to-door) from flat. M7 & M5 trains

<http://parisadele.com/portfolio/bastille-markets/>

"One of the biggest markets in Paris, the Marché Bastille's food stalls sprawl up the Boulevard Richard Lenoir twice a week, with more produce than most supermarkets – it's a particularly great source of local cheeses, free range chicken and excellent fish. The atmospheric and beautiful piles of fruit, veg, saucisses, olives and so on are interspersed with stalls offering African batiks, cheap jewellery and bags, but that doesn't detract from the overall sense of bountiful goodness. Keep an eye on the prices, as not everything is a bargain – some of this is seriously classy stuff, making the market a favourite with bourgeois foodies."

Musee d Orsay from 930am-6pm. (€12 Closed Mondays)

20 minutes (door-to-door) from Bastille Market. M12 south from Notre Dame

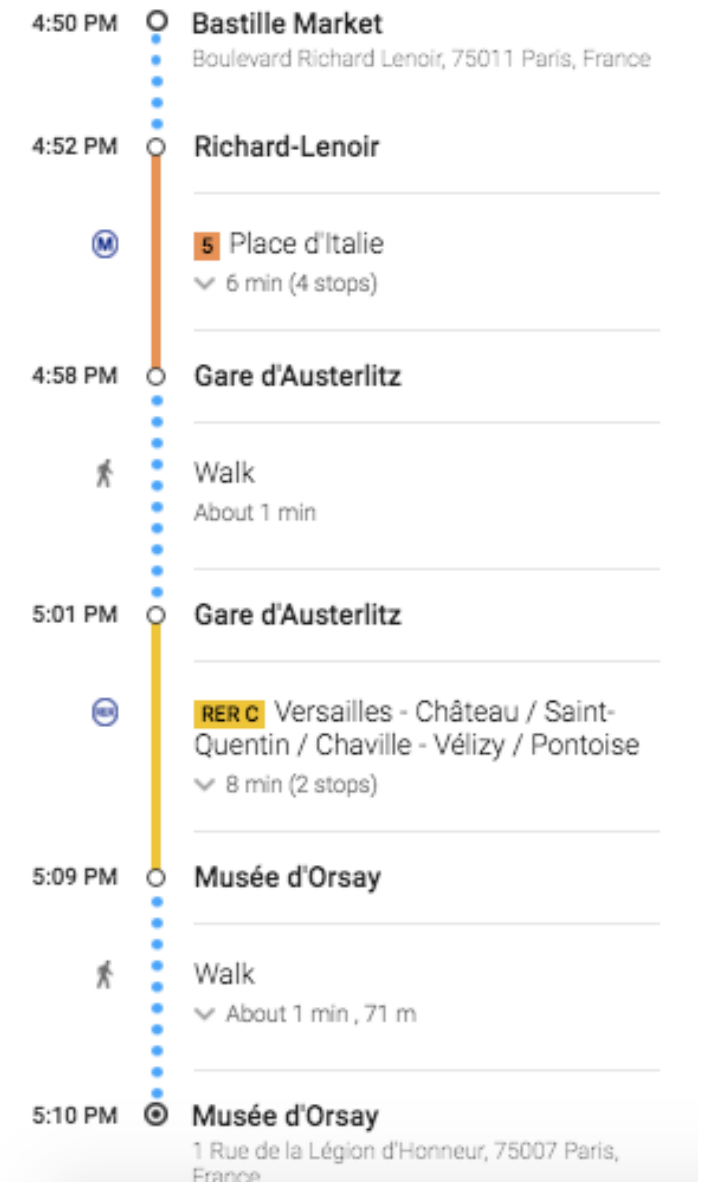

<http://www.musee-orsay.fr/en/visit/opening-hours/opening-hours.html>
